About us

KRONOTEX is characterised by innovation, success and international growth. We develop modern, also water-repellent laminate flooring for KRONOTEX. With our design, we set trends for interior design as a global market leader. We produce high-quality, eco-friendly, sustainable, healthy engineered wood materials from debarked domestic pine and spruce wood.

Established in 1992, KRONOTEX is one of the leading European manufacturers of laminate flooring. All KRONOTEX products meet the most rigorous technical and environmental requirements. We have a lengthy tradition of offering customer-focused solutions and adding value for our customers around the world. We naturally strive for an attractive price/performance ratio and high customer satisfaction. We want our products to meet or exceed all of our customer's requirements in terms of usability, healthy living, indoor comfort and environmental friendliness. In order to gain their trust, we practice a strong customer focus and provide competent advice in all of our activities, from sales across service to handling of complaints.

KRONOTEX laminate consists of 90 percent wood from sustainable forestry, is easy to clean, durable and is very easy to lay.
